MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE, WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 24, 1883.
NO. 46.

APPROPRIATE resolutions were adopted yesterday by the Cotton Exchange in reference to the death of Mr. J. P. Day.

The second day of the race was highly interesting to everybody in attendance, save, perhaps, a few who took chances against the favorites. Every day this week will be a good day, rain or shine.

GOVERNOR LEWIS has appointed eight delegates to the National Cotton Planters Association of America, which is to meet in Vicksburg on the 21st of November next. No danger of Mississippi being out voted or getting left.

GEN. TOM TOWN'S widow has so far recovered from her grief at his death as to reappear on the stage. She was at Cincinnati last week and no doubt loves a dollar as well as ever. The General was very avaricious and selfish, although he spent more freely on himself, and sometimes on his palatial company.

The total vote of Ohio cast at the late election, official from all counties except two, but believed to be carried as to the result, is announced as follows: Headly, Democrat, 228,000 Foraker, Republican, 221,000 Buckley, Prohibitionist, 21,000 Jenkins, Greenbacker, 2,700 Over all others, 1,000

So Headly was not elected by a plurality after all, as so many of the Republican papers have claimed.

So Mary Anderson has been present to the Prince of Wales after all. The Princess was present also, and gave Miss Anderson a bouquet, and the Prince complimented her acting in Paris.

A TREATY has at last been signed between Chili and Peru, and this ends a long and bloody struggle, which brought Peru to the dust, and destroyed a prosperity which cannot be restored for generations to come. The war began in a dispute about a boundary line between Chili and Bolivia, and Peru took sides on account of a secret treaty of mutual support and alliance. A terrible price has been paid for keeping faith.

A MEETING of representative Irishmen was held last night at the courthouse, to take steps toward raising funds to defray the expenses of the trial of Patrick O'Donnell, the informer of James Carey, the infamous informer. No people on earth have more cause to despise a traitor than the patriotic Irish, and this is a meeting that arouses them all over the world.
Such a man as Carey could not live long anywhere on earth. He lived others on to destruction, and then sought to save himself by betraying the most solemn secret compact that men can make. The British government made use of him, and he betrayed them. He was a traitor, but he was a man. He was a man who was shipped to a remote colony, and yet he might as well have come to Memphis and registered in his own name. The hand of every honest hearted Irishman was against him, and the mark on his brow was no protection, as in the case of O'Donnell, Irish blood cried aloud for vengeance. He was a man who was ground and he laid to go; it was only a question of time and opportunity. For the purposes of legal defense it may be set up by Gen. Pryor and other counsel that O'Donnell acted in self-defense. As a matter of fact he betrayed the traitor and deliberately slew him. Now, it is proposed to see, if possible, that he has a trial, and the Irish people of Memphis and their friends and sympathizers will, as usual, do their part. Committees were appointed last night for each ward and for the city at large to raise funds, and no doubt a handsome sum will be collected.
The chances are good for a fair trial, provided counsel for the defense can be maintained. If O'Donnell is acquitted, it is proposed to present him a handsome testimonial; and if he dies, to let it go to his mother, Margery O'Donnell, in Donegal.
With such an appeal as this before the friends of Ireland in Memphis, there will surely be a generous response.

GOV. HEADLY'S HEALTH.

He Expects Speedy Restoration in the Quies and Seclusion of a Quaker City Hotel—No Necessity for an Ocean Voyage.

Special to the Commercial Gazette.
PHILADELPHIA, October 22.—The Governor-elect of Ohio, Judge Headly, arrived in this city on Sunday evening.
He proceeded to the St. George Hotel, where he was given the same room he occupied some weeks ago when confined by illness.

"I feel better to-day," he remarked this afternoon to a Commercial Gazette correspondent, "than at any time since the 15th of August indeed, I am very much improved and am of a thorough and speedy restoration."

"Do you really intend taking a trip to Europe, Governor?"
"No, I think it very improbable. My object in crossing the water would be simply for the benefit of the sea voyage to Liverpool and back. But I do not think the doctor considers there is any necessity now for the change."

"Was the result of your election a surprise to you?"
"I have known how to answer that question. As far as our own anticipations were concerned, they were simply verified. Whether the other side was acquiescent or not I cannot say. Just previous to the election I spoke in Cleveland, Toledo, Dayton and Sandusky, and I had not the slightest doubt of the result of the votes in those places. In Erie county I presumed upon a majority of 100; it was 100. The entire vote was added, and the weight to our forces in Erie and also in Oakawa county."

"And what are your plans for the future, Governor?"
"They are entirely unformed. The recovery of my health is my first consideration. That accomplished, I shall feel the pulse of the State, and decide upon my course of action."

"No, I can say nothing to you at present on that subject. I hope to remain for some little time in Philadelphia, just to be rested from excitement."

"I consider this to be one of the quietest cities on earth for repose. I am in charge of an excellent physician, and a portion of his prescription is rest, body and mental. I am obliged to you for your visit."

DAVID DAVIS INDIGNANT.

He Objects to the Appearance of the James Commission in His Theater.

Special to the Commercial Gazette.
BLOOMINGTON, Ill., October 21.—Ex-Vice President David Davis arrived this morning from Washington City, after a month or two absence with his wife's relations in North Carolina. It said that the distinguished Senator upon his arrival home, became very wrathly upon hearing that the James Commission, who were engaged to appear on next Friday. The distinguished gentleman will prevail upon the City Council to prevent the appearance of the James Commission.

It will be remembered that Senator Davis, a few years ago, broke the contract made between his agent and a woman Blood, the ex-husband of Victoria Woodhull, for the appearance of that notorious woman. The Senator put his foot down, and the result was Victoria did not appear in the Judge's courtroom.

yesterday. She hit him on the head with a hammer. She gave herself up, and is now in jail at Moberly.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Rupture Between the Vatican and Cardinal Hopenloper—Other Matters.

DUBLIN, October 24.—Pope has been indicted for the murder of Kennedy.

BERLIN, October 24.—The rupture between the Vatican and Cardinal Hopenloper is complete, and the Cardinal will probably remain in Germany during the winter.

The National Zeitung, learns that the Cardinal's sudden departure from Rome was owing to the failure of his request for the removal of his confidant the duke of Alva, with whom he had every reason to be dissatisfied, and to pecuniary troubles. The same paper thinks the association of his departure with the Cardinal's is a gross misrepresentation, as the Cardinal has never been a political man.

St. Petersburg, October 24.—General Tolstoy has resigned the Governor-Generalship of Witia on account of ill health.

LONDON, October 24.—At Newmarket this morning the handicap stakes for two year olds was won by Tom Bola. Eleven

The Dewhurst plate, two year olds, was won by Hermit Adelaide, filly, first, Bury Business Meeting of the Organization at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, October 24.—The Society of the Army of the Cumberland formed this morning at the Burnet House and marched with band to the Grand Opera-house, to hold a business session.
The Society was led by its President, General Sherman, who had General Rosenberger on his right. Following came General Wood with General John A. Logan after these were General Newton, Carver, Morgan, and others. There were about one hundred and fifty others. General Sherman called the Society to order and prayer was offered by Chaplain Kim-shaw. The reports of the committee were heard, and it was stated in explanation of the absence of members of the Society General Sherman, that he had never become a member of the society. General Rosenberger presented a resolution which was adopted, that the Committee on Monitor the necessary steps to have a sketch of General Sherman's military career published in the Annual Report.
